ECHOES OF LAST WEEK.

Crowded out of Last Issue.

The Baptist National Magazine is making commendable progress under the editorial management of Rev. W. Bishop Johnson. It is a neatly gotten up pamphlet, and contains much readable matter.

Miss Lula Brighton, a charming young lady of Frederick, Md., was in the city during inauguration week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas. She was entertained while here at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Costley.

One of our many subscribers in the Indian Territory recently sent us a sum of money but failed to inclose his name or address. We would be pleased to know who the party is in order that due credit may be given him on our books.

Mr. C. F. Streets was laid up recently for several days suffering from an ingrowing toe nail, but is O. K. now. His friends claim 'twas the gout but Charlie says it couldn't have been caused by "high" living as his dining room is on the first floor.

Mrs. Lindsay, the amiable wife of Dr. F. T. Lindsay a practicing physician of Xenia, Ohio, was entertained at luncheon by Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Conner during her stay in the city. Mrs. Lindsay and Dr. and Mrs. Conner are "Buckeyes" of long acquaintance.

A "Sociological Study of the Colored Population of Washington" will be discussed before the Bethel Literary and Historical Association, next Tuesday evening by Mr. A. F. Hilyer, Mr. Arthur S. Gray, Mr. L. Gorham Fletcher, Mr. George W. Ellis, and Dr. R. T. Hamilton.

Rev. J. O. Herbin commenced a revival meeting at Salem Baptist church last Sunday night, March 17th. It will be conducted by him for a few weeks. Rev. Herbin has conducted a great number of meetings in this city for the last few months and always proves a drawing card.

The Personal Liberty League has secured its license, and is doing a handsome business at the usual stand. C. J. J. Burke Edelin dispenses a genial hospitality to the members and friends as of yore, and the Sunday sessions are enlivened by special music. C. I. R. R. Bowie is a valued attache of the staff.

Mrs. Julia Emery of Colorado one of the leading literary and church workers of the West arrived from Salt Lake City, Utah, for the inauguration to visit the Financial Secretary's wife, Mrs. P. A. Hubbard. She will leave Monday for a week's visit in Chicago and St. Joseph, Mo., before returning to Denver, Colo. Mrs. Emery is charmed with Washington.

Rev. I. Tolliver and several of his flock drove a crowd of men from a Foggy Bottom pool room by bombarding the place by singing and prayer. The proprietor threatened violence, but dared not commit an assault. The religious party were arrested for promoting a disorderly gathering, but were discharged by the judge after testimony was taken. Other joints will be visited by Rev. Tolliver's committee soon.

"Western Day" at Second Baptist Lyceum.

Tomorrow at 3:30 p. m., "Western Day" will be observed at the Second Baptist Lyceum. Mr. Robert Peltam, Jr., of Michigan, formerly editor of the Detroit Plaindealer, will be the speaker, his theme being "The Negro in the West: A Factor in Race Development." Mrs. Robert Peltam will make her first public appearance in Washington as a musician, rendering a piano solo. Mrs. Arthur S. Gray, of Kansas, will contribute a vocal solo. A gala day may be expected, and those who desire seats should come early. All are invited, Westerners especially.

In Honor of President Hawkins.

The National Personal Liberty League gave a musicale and reception Wednesday evening at the headquarters, 340 Pennsylvania Avenue, in honor of the worthy president of the organization, Mr. Henry Clay Hawkins, of West Virginia. The attendance was large and representative. Music was furnished by the Monumental Orchestra. R. R. Bowie was chairman of the arrangements, assisted by National Organizer, C. C. Curtis, and Mr. W. T. Menard, Washington correspondent of the New York Age, acted as master of ceremonies.

Score one for the Race.

A short time ago, Public Printer Palmer decided to fill a vacant clerkship at the Government Printing Office the place paying $4 per day. The entries for examination were numerous the applicant's being recommended by their respective foremen. In the list were two colored men, W. B. Christian of Baltimore, and J. W. Butcher, of the District. Mr. Christian led the entire "bunch" by a big margin, and has been appointed to the clerkship. He is giving entire satisfaction in the discharge of very onerous duties. Mr. Christian and Mr. N. W. Cuney are the only colored clerks employed in the office.

AROUND THE WORLD.

Two Washington and a Georgia Boy Circumnavigate the Globe.

A letter has just been received from Mr. Charles N. Jenks, formerly of 1414 8th street, n. w., Mr. William H. Powell, 1732 10th street, n. w., and Mr. William W. Carter of Augusta, Ga.; telling their friends of their voyage. They write; "After three long trips around the world, spending two weeks in Honolulu, ten days in Yokohama, Japan, forty days, Nagisaka, five days in Hong Kong, China, and now wintering in Manila." They will return to their native heath in May, and will no doubt have many interesting things to tell their friends acquaintances.

Special Inducements.

Extraordinary inducements are offered by Messrs. Clark Bros., whose real estate and insurance offices are at 605 13th st., n. w. They are controlling the best suburban lots in the District of Columbia, and they are selling these lots to white and colored people alike. The terms are reasonable and sensible. Colored people ought to take advantage of the offers they are making. See advertisement in another part of the paper.

CURES BALDNESS

Prevents Hair Falling Out, Removes Dandruff, Stops Itching and Restores Luxuriant Growth to Shining Scalps, Eyebrows and Eyelashes.

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE.

No longer any excuse for Dandruff, Falling Hair or Baldness.

D. B. Cherniss, Farmersville, Texas, says the top of his head was entirely bald but the Remedies have grown a fine new crop of hair and everyone in town is surprised to see it.

Says Professor Turner, President of Fairmount College, Sulphur, Ky., "After being bald for thirty years, I began using the remedy in 1895, and in a few weeks thereafter my entire scalp was covered with a thick downy growth of new hair. The whole of my hair was gone except a fringe around my hat line. In six weeks the bald spot was entirely covered. I had been bald for thirty years, and when hair can be made to grow on such a head as mine no bald headed person need fear the results."

Theresa Fennell, Moscow, Idaho, says: "My head was bald and glossy, but since using the Foso Treatment my hair is now four inches in length and quite curly."

The remedy has cured thousands and no one need fear that it is harmful. We do not ask you to take our word for it or anyone else's. Send for the free trial and learn for yourself just what this wonderful remedy will actually do for you.

The remedy also cures itching and dandruff, sure signs of approaching baldness and keeps the scalp healthy and vigorous. It also restores gray hair to natural color and produces thick and lustrous eyebrows and eyelashes. By sending your name and address to the Altheim Medical Dispensary, 3350 Butterfield Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, enclosing a 2-cent stamp to cover postage, they will mail you prepaid a free trial package of their remarkable remedy.
